Prof. N. Narasimhamurthy, has sought information relating to development of software in connection with work.

The Vice-Chancellor while giving a brief account of the establishment of Bengaluru Central University and the different initiatives taken by the University towards the e-governance and also the benefits of automation introduced in the examination system. He emphasized the advantage of being a new University which could give priority for implementing innovative ideas. Keeping in view the policy of State Government / UGC / MHRD it is mandatory to introduce automation in all aspects of administration of the University. The online processing of affiliation system is one such area and sought the cooperation of all the stakeholders. As the first step an expert working group has been constituted to prepare online application for affiliated colleges with IT integration incorporating some of the good features adopted by NAAC. Several meetings have been conducted involving Prof. H.A. Ranganath, Former Vice-Chancellor, Bangalore University and Former Director of NAAC, Prof. V.B. Coutinho, Former Vice-Chancellor, Gulbarga University, Prof. V.G. Talawar, Former Vice-Chancellor, University of Mysore and the experts from NAAC. Apart from these members the representatives of Syndicate / Academic Council and senior faculty members of BCU have also been involved in this process.

The online affiliation process which would help the University and affiliated colleges for effective e-governance, minimizing manual paper process work, enhance efficiency, cost effective; the data so generated online can be used by the BCU / Affiliated colleges for many other process like statistical information to UGC, MHRD and other agencies.

The Vice-Chancellor briefed further that the development of LIC software has been entrusted to young software engineers and no payment has been made so far. The introduction of online affiliation process system has been approved by the Syndicate at its meeting held on 19.01.2019. If any payment is to be made in this regard approval of the Syndicate will be obtained. At this juncture many members have also shared their experience in this regard.

Smt. Sowmya Reddy, MLA joined the meeting later and the Registrar welcomed for the meeting.

After this clarification by the Vice-Chancellor the LIC Chairpersons / other members have presented their reports before the Academic Council as detailed below:

| Item No.1: | To consider LIC reports of the 11 committees constituted by BCU to visit colleges for renewal of affiliation / grant of new courses / increase of intake / permanent affiliation / renewal of permanent affiliation and to recommend to Government for fresh affiliation of new colleges. |

The Bengaluru Central University had constituted 11 Local Inquiry Committees (LIC) to visit existing affiliated Colleges and fresh colleges coming under the jurisdiction of BCU for the academic year 2019-20. The LIC Committee Chairpersons and Members have presented the following reports:

- The committee has recommended renewal of affiliation of 19 colleges and 1 college has not been recommended for renewal due to the college has secured less than 40% of score.
- The committee recommended 3 fresh colleges.
(5) Dr. M. Muninarayanappa - Chairperson of LIC, Gandhinagar constituency
Professor of Commerce, BCU

Since Dr. M. Muninarayanappa is not a member of the Academic Council on his behalf Dr. Godamani has presented the report.

- The University has entrusted 19 colleges.
- The committee has recommended renewal of affiliation of 19 colleges.

(6) Dr. M. Pandurangappa - Chairperson of LIC, Hebbal constituency
Professor of Chemistry, BCU

- The University has entrusted 22 colleges out of which 3 fresh colleges.
- The committee has recommended renewal of affiliation of 19 Colleges and 1 college has not been recommended for renewal due to the college has secured less than 40% of score.
- The committee recommended 3 fresh colleges.

(7) Dr. M.S. Mahadeva Naika - Chairperson of LIC, Jayanagar constituency
Professor of Mathematics, BCU

Since Dr. M.S. Mahadeva Naika has been appointed as Special Officer of Mandya University, Mandya, the Registrar, BCU has presented the report.

- The University has entrusted 21 colleges out of which 2 fresh Colleges.
- The committee has recommended renewal of affiliation of 19 Colleges and 1 college has not been recommended for renewal due to the college has secured less than 40% of score.
- The committee recommended 2 new colleges.
(8) Dr. M. Muniraju
Dean Faculty of Commerce, BCU
- Chairperson of LIC, Rajajinagar constituency

- The University has entrusted 19 colleges out of which 2 fresh colleges.
- The committee has recommended renewal of affiliation of 16 colleges and 1 college has not been recommended for renewal due to the college has secured less than 40% of score.
- Out of 2 new colleges the committee has recommended 1 college and 1 college not recommended.

(9) Dr. S. Hariprasad
Professor of Chemistry, BCU
- Chairperson of LIC, Shivajinagar constituency

- The University has entrusted 19 colleges out of which 3 fresh colleges.
- The committee has recommended renewal of affiliation of 17 colleges.
- Out of 3 new colleges the committee has recommended 2 Colleges and 1 College not recommended.

(10) Dr. V.R. Devaraj
Professor of Bio-chemistry, BCU
- Chairperson of LIC, Yelahanka constituency

- The University has entrusted 23 colleges out of which 2 fresh colleges.
- The committee has recommended renewal of affiliation of 20 colleges and 1 college has not been recommended for renewal due to the college has secured less than 40% of score.
- The committee recommended 2 new colleges.

(11) Dr. Haseen Taj
Professor of Education, Bangalore University
- Chairperson for B.Ed Colleges

- The University has entrusted 22 colleges out of which 1 fresh college.
- The committee has recommended renewal of affiliation of 21 colleges.
- The committee recommended 1 new college.
(12) The 12 colleges (annexure enclosed) have not been recommended for renewal of affiliation since these colleges secured less than 40% score. After detailed discussion the Academic Council unanimously resolved to recommend to the Syndicate to constitute a Committee to re-visit these colleges.

(13) Academic Council resolved for re-visit of the LIC in respect of St. Francis College.

(14) It was reported by Chairpersons of the various Committees about a few errors between LIC recommendation and computer generated scores/recommendations namely for granting permanent affiliation / renewal of permanent affiliation / additional courses / combinations and enhancement of intake of existing colleges. The Academic Council resolved to recommend to the Syndicate that, such cases may be considered as recommended by the LIC committees.

(15) With the above observations the Academic Council has recommended its acceptance of the reports submitted by 11 LIC Committees and recommended to place it before the Syndicate for consideration.

(i) Shri. M. Narayanaswamy told that while going through the reports of the LIC the self-assessment score of some of the colleges is less than the LIC committee assessment score. It should be other way that the LIC assessment score should be less than or equal to the online self-assessment score of the college. Then members have clarified that some of the colleges have not properly filled the online self-assessment report and when the committee actually verified the facilities the scores have been increased. Further, Shri. M. Narayanaswamy told that the Chairman and other members of the LIC while granting new courses should keep in mind the interest of students and their employability after obtaining degrees.

(ii) The Hon'ble member further told that he would be happy to help the University for any pending work in the Government and University shall feel free to approach him for any kind of assistance. Hon'ble member Smt. Sowmya Reddy, MLA would also join me in this task.

(iii) The Registrar has informed the House that new syllabus for Languages to be introduced for I & II semester under CBCS semester scheme. The Chairpersons of Board of Studies in Kannada, English, Hindi, Sanskrit, Tamil and Malayalam have given revised syllabus proposed to be introduced from the academic year 2019-20 by BCU. These proposals have to be approved by the Academic Council. This matter is urgent since the BCU has to provide textbooks in these languages to the students in the first week of July 2019 and printing work has to be undertaken.

(iv) Prof. Narasimhamurthy, Dean Faculty of Arts has said that the recommendations of the Board of Studies for revision of the syllabus to be placed before the faculty meeting first and then submit before the Academic Council. The Registrar and the Vice-Chancellor told that in view of no permanent faculty in BCU except the Dean, the Faculty of Arts is yet to be constituted. Hence requested to approve the syllabus in the interest of students.

The Registrar proposed special vote of thanks to Shri M. Narayanaswamy and Smt. Sowmya Reddy, Hon'ble members who have left the House before conclusion due to some official work, for their kind guidance, concern and valuable suggestions during the conduct of the meeting.

Dr. E.B. Rajesh has conveyed that due to introduction of Online Affiliation Process System in BCU has considerably reduced the paper work for submission of LIC report in 8 copies consisting of about 30-40 pages of each report to the University. Further, the data submitted now could be useful for next year affiliation except some modifications / changes to be incorporated. The fine tuning of software is to be done after obtaining feedback from all LIC committees and suggestion for modification in the existing software.

The Vice-Chancellor informed that Online Affiliation Process System is introduced in BCU for the first time in Karnataka and there is bound to be some errors and the same could be rectified. The Vice-Chancellor has requested all the Chairpersons / Members of LIC to give their feedback and suggestion to be incorporated in the existing software, so that such mistakes could be rectified during 2020-21.
